9.2. An Employer or Employee may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purposes of this clause.

9.3. If a dispute about a matter arising under this Agreement or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 9.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the FWC.

9.4. Provided that arbitration by FWC may only occur by the agreement of the parties to the dispute in relation to disputes arising under clause 10 (workload management), clause 11.6 (casual conversion) or 56(h) (Opal HealthCare Standard Roster).

9.5. Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved, the FWC may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.

- 9.6. While the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted, work must continue in accordance with this Agreement and the Act, and in accordance with custom and practice at the workplace. Subject to applicable occupational health and safety legislation, an Employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by the Employer to perform work, whether at the same or another workplace that is safe and appropriate for the Employee to perform.

Employees under this agreement will be employed in one of the following categories:

- (a) full-time;
- (b) part-time; or
- (c) casual

At the time of engagement an Employer will inform each Employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part-time or casual basis. An Employer may direct an Employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the Employee's skill, competence and training, consistent with the respective classification.

11.2. Full-time employment

- (a) A full-time Employee is one who is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 22 (a) of this Agreement.
- (b) A full-time Employee will be paid a minimum of four (4) hours pay for each engagement in respect of an ordinary shift

11.3. Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time Employee is an Employee who is engaged to work less than full-time hours of an average of 38 hours per week and has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) Before commencing part-time employment, the Employer and part-time Nursing Employee will agree in writing the guaranteed minimum number of hours to be worked per fortnight and the rostering arrangements which will apply to those hours. The terms of the agreement may be varied by agreement and recorded in writing.
- (c) Before commencing part-time employment, the Employer and a part-time Aged Care Employee will agree in writing on:

Where the Employee is regularly working more than their specified contract hours then such contract hours shall be adjusted by the Employer, to reflect the hours regularly worked. The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment:
 - (i) if the increase in hours is as a direct result of an Employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, maternity leave, workers compensation; and
 - (ii) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours only due, for example, to the specific needs of a resident.
- (b) Any adjusted contracted hours resulting from a review by the Employer, should, however, be such as to readily reflect roster cycles and shift configurations utilised at the workplace.

11.5. Casual employment

- (c) The Employer must give the Employee a written response to a written notification (given in accordance with the Act) within 21 days after the notification is given to the Employer. The information that must be included in the response, the obligation to consult with the Employee and the grounds for non-acceptance of the notification are set out in the Act.
