CARRINGTON ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2020

Aged care industry

DEPUTY PRESIDENT MANSINI

MELBOURNE, 24 DECEMBER 2020

Application for approval of the Carrington Enterprise Agreement 2020.

[1] Carrington Centennial Care Limited has applied for approval of a single enterprise agreement known as the Carrington Enterprise Agreement 2020 (the Agreement) pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (the Act).

[2] Since the application was made, the Commission raised concerns about the form of the application, whether the pre-approval requirements were met and whether the Agreement passes the better off overall test. Further information was provided in relation to these concerns.

[3] Carrington Centennial Care Limited sought to correct a typographical error in the original application, by filing an amended statutory declaration. In the circumstances, I am satisfied that this amendment should be allowed and that it is appropriate to do so pursuant to s.586 of the Act.

[4] Written undertakings were given in accordance with s.190 of the Act and are attached at Annexure A (Undertakings). The Health Services Union supported, and the other Bargaining Representatives did not oppose the Undertakings. I am satisfied that the Undertakings will not cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement and that the Undertakings will not result in substantial changes to the Agreement. Pursuant to s.201(3) of the Act, the Undertakings are taken to be terms of the Agreement.

[5] On the basis of the material contained in the application, further information provided on request of the Commission and the Undertakings, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[6] The Health Services Union and the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation, being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have respectively given notice under s.183 of the Act. In accordance with s.201(2) I note that the Agreement covers these organisations.

[7] The Agreement was approved on 24 December 2020 and, in accordance with s.54, will operate from 31 December 2020. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 30 June 2023.

  - (iii) Any request under this subclause must be in writing and provided to Carrington.
  - (iv) Where a regular casual employee seeks to convert to full-time or part-time employment, Carrington may agree to or refuse the request, but the request may only be refused on reasonable grounds and after there has been consultation with the employee.

- (v) Reasonable grounds for refusal include that:
- a) it would require a significant adjustment to the casual employee's hours of work in order for the employee to be engaged as a full-time or part-time employee in accordance with the provisions of this award – that is, the casual employee is not truly a regular casual employee as defined in subclause (a); or
  - b) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the regular casual employee's position will cease to exist within the next 12 months; or
  - c) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the hours of work which the regular casual employee is required to perform will be significantly reduced in the next 12 months; or
  - d) it is known or reasonably foreseeable that there will be a significant change in the days and/or times at which the employee's hours of work are required to be performed in the next 12 months which cannot be accommodated within the days and/or hours during which the employee is available to work.
  - e) the hours worked in the following circumstances will also not be incorporated in a consent and conversion:
    - i. where the increase in hours is as a direct result of an employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, parental leave, workers compensation; and/or

- (c) If within three months of commencing employment an employee does provide documentary evidence of other previous relevant service or experience not disclosed at the time of commencement, Carrington shall pay the employee at the appropriate rate as and from the date of commencement that would have been paid from that date had the additional evidence been provided at that time.
- (d) If an employee provides documentary evidence of other previous relevant service or experience not disclosed at the time of commencement after the said three (3) months period, the employee shall be paid a rate appropriate for the previous relevant service or experience then proved, but only from the date of providing that evidence to Carrington.

If that proof is so provided, the employee shall be paid at the higher rate as and from the date they were entitled to progress to the next year of service or experience. If the proof is provided outside that three-month period, the employee shall be paid at the higher rate only from the date that proof is provided.
- (g) A Registered Nurse or Enrolled Nurse who has trained outside New South Wales shall be paid as a registered nurse as from the date they notifies Carrington in writing that they are eligible for registration or enrolment as a registered nurse; provided that they make application for registration within seven (7) days after being so notified that they are eligible for registration.

In addition, a loading of 25% of that rate will be paid instead of the paid leave entitlements accrued by full-time and part time employees.
- (b) Where it is expressly stated in this Agreement that overtime and public holiday payments are to be made to casual employees, such payments shall be taken to be inclusive of casual loading referred to in this sub-clause.

  - (ii) Second and subsequent claims: where an employee having returned to work from a period of parental leave has completed three (3) months of continuous service prior to each claim.

- (b) For the purposes of the calculation of “ordinary pay” for paid parental leave purposes, an employee will be paid the higher of:
  - (i) the average of the ordinary hours actually worked by the employee in the 12-month period ending at the commencement of parental leave; or
  - (ii) the ordinary hours worked by the employee at the time of the commencement of parental leave.
- (c) Paid parental leave includes:
  - (i) between nine (9) and 12 weeks paid maternity leave for the birth mother (in accordance with subclause d below)

- (f) Partner includes same-sex and de facto partner but does not include former de facto partners.
- (g) Any period of “paid no safe job leave” taken by an employee pursuant to the “Transfer to a Safe Job” provisions of the Act shall be deducted from the employee’s entitlement to paid maternity leave.

31. LONG SERVICE LEAVE

31.1 An employee’s entitlement to long service leave shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the relevant legislation provided that should there be any inconsistency between that legislation and the provisions of this Agreement these provisions shall prevail to the extent the Agreement entitles employees to long service leave in excess of the employees’ entitlement to long service leave under the legislation.

31.2 The relevant legislation is the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW).

31.3 Amount of Long Service Leave

- (a) Each employee shall be entitled to two (2) months’ long service leave on ordinary pay after ten (10) years’ service; thereafter additional long service leave shall accrue on the basis of five (5) months long service leave for each ten (10) years’ service.
- (b) For the purposes of calculating long service leave under this subclause, service shall include:
  - (i) all periods of paid leave;
  - (ii) community service leave;
  - (iii) periods of unpaid personal leave caused by the absence of the worker on account of illness or injury;
  - (iv) periods of unpaid carer’s leave (up to 14 days per year); and

- (v) any period of unpaid leave where it has been agreed between Carrington and the employee that long service leave shall accrue.
- (c) For the purposes of calculating long service leave under this clause, long service leave shall not accrue during the following absences:
  - (i) unpaid parental leave;
  - (ii) periods of leave without pay where there is no agreement between Carrington and the employee that any form of paid leave will accrue; and
  - (iii) absences arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute.
- (d) Long service leave will also not accrue during these periods of unpaid leave, however, such leave shall not break the employee's continuity of service.
- (e) Long service leave shall accrue for all full time, part time and casual employees.

31.4 Taking of Long Service Leave

- (a) Long service leave can be taken as one continuous period, or separate periods. The minimum period of leave shall be one (1) week and leave shall be taken in week blocks. Employees should apply in writing to take long service leave as per Carrington's policies and procedures.
- (b) Long service leave may be taken on a pro-rata basis after completing the initial seven (7) year period.
- (c) The employee is entitled to payment for long service leave in accordance with the relevant legislation.
- (d) Carrington may direct an employee to take long service leave where their balance totals 13 weeks or more. In such circumstances, the employee will have two months to provide a leave plan to Carrington which provides for the long service leave to be taken within 18 months (taking into account accruals during the leave plan period), unless otherwise agreed. Such plan must be in writing.
- (a) Where an employee does not provide a leave plan in accordance with sub clause (d) above, Carrington will consult with the employee regarding the taking of long service leave. When a mutually agreeable date cannot be reached or a long service leave plan is not provided when requested, the date for taking long service leave will be determined by Carrington (provided at least six (6) months' notice is given). However, the provisions of Clause 44 – Grievance and Dispute Resolution Procedures will apply if the employee disagrees with the direction.
- (b) The submitting of an application for long service leave does not constitute approval of an employee's application as management needs to consider each application with regards to operational requirements, however Carrington shall not unreasonably withhold approval.

31.5 Payment of Long Service Leave on Termination

- (a) Where the services of an employee are terminated either by Carrington or the employee after ten (10) years' service, the employee shall be paid the balance of long service leave which has been accrued.
- (b) Where the services of an employee with between five (5) and ten (10) years' service are terminated by Carrington for any reason other than the employee's serious and wilful misconduct, or by the employee on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity the employee shall be entitled to be paid the amount of pro-rata long service leave which has been accrued less any amount of leave taken.

- (c) In the event of the death of an employee with at least five (5) years' service, Carrington will make payment for long service leave accrued but not taken to the employee's estate via their personal representative.

32. LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

- 32.1 By agreement between Carrington and a permanent employee, an employee may be granted a period of leave without pay.
- 32.2 The period of leave without pay will not break the continuity of service of the employee but will not count for the purpose of:
  - (a) accruing annual leave or personal/carer's leave, incremental progression, and public holidays;
  - (b) accruing long service leave, except in the case of employees who have completed at least ten (10) years' service;
  - (c) the qualifying period for paid and unpaid parental leave; and
  - (d) the calculation of notice and severance pay in accordance with Clause 35 - Termination of Employment and Clause 36 - Redundancy.

33. CEREMONIAL LEAVE

- 33.1 An employee who is required by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander tradition to be absent from work for Aboriginal ceremonial purposes will be entitled to up to ten (10) working days unpaid leave in any one year, with the approval of Carrington.

34. NATURAL DISASTER LEAVE

- 34.1 Where a permanent employee is unable to attend work because of a natural disaster, i.e. bushfire or flood, they will be entitled to be paid ordinary pay for the shift they would otherwise have worked on that day. This entitlement will apply once per calendar year and is not cumulative from year to year.
- 34.2 Carrington may require the employee to provide evidence to support their claim.

35. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- 35.1 Prior to reaching any decision to terminate the employment of an employee on grounds other than would justify summary dismissal, management will:
  - (a) inform the employee that the termination of their employment is being considered;
  - (b) advise the employee of the reasons for termination; and
  - (c) provide the employee with an opportunity to show cause why their employment should not be terminated.
- 35.2 An employee shall be given reasonable time to respond and shall be provided with details of any relevant material. Where a meeting is held with the employee, the employee is entitled to have a witness present. The witness may be e.g. a co-worker, a workplace union delegate, an officer of the union, a family member, or any other person.

35.3 Employment, other than of a casual, will be terminated only by appropriate notice on either side or by the payment by Carrington for work performed and statutory entitlements or forfeiture by the employee of wages for work not performed in lieu of notice. Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified, and part payment or forfeiture, in lieu of the period of notice specified.

35.4 Notice of Termination by Carrington

(a) Carrington shall give notice of termination in accordance with the following table:

Period of Continuous Service	Minimum Period of Notice
1 year or less	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks

(b) Employees (other than casuals) aged 45 years or older will be entitled to an additional one weeks' notice if the employee has completed at least two years continuous service with Carrington.

(c) Carrington may, without notice, summarily dismiss an employee at any time for serious misconduct or wilful disobedience. Payment is up to the time of dismissal only.

(d) Casuals are to be given notice to the end of the current shift worked.

35.5 Notice by employee

(a) Employees shall give Carrington two (2) weeks' notice of termination in writing.

(b) Casuals shall only be required to give notice to the end of the current shift worked.

(c) Carrington will give the employee a statement signed by management stating the period of employment and when the employment was terminated if the employee requests.

35.6 Abandonment of Employment

(a) Where an employee is absent from work for a continuous period of two (2) working days without the consent of management, and without notification to management, management shall be entitled to inform the employee by written correspondence that unless the employee provides a satisfactory explanation for her or his absence within two (2) days of the receipt of such a request, the employee will be considered to have abandoned employment.

(b) Where an employee has been considered to have abandoned their employment, the notice periods outlined above shall apply.

36. REDUNDANCY

36.1 For the purposes of this clause, "continuous service" shall be interpreted in the same manner as "service of a worker" is interpreted in the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW) as at the date this Agreement comes into operation. Periods of leave without pay, including parental leave without pay, do not break the continuity of service of an employee but are not to be taken into account in calculating length of service for the purposes of this clause.

36.2 Redundancy occurs where management has made a definite decision that Carrington no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

36.3 Unless the FWC subsequently orders otherwise pursuant to sub-clause 36.4, where the employment of an employee is to be terminated for the reason set out in sub-clause 36.2, that Carrington shall pay, in addition to other payments due to that employee, the following retrenchment pay in respect of the following continuous periods of service:

(a) Where the employee is under 45 years of age, Carrington shall pay the employee in accordance with the following scale:

Minimum Years of Service	Retrenchment Pay
Less than 1 year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	4 weeks' pay
2 years and less than 3 years	7 weeks' pay
3 years and less than 4 years	10 weeks' pay
4 years and less than 5 years	12 weeks' pay
5 years and less than 6 years	14 weeks' pay
6 years and over	16 weeks' pay

(b) Where the employee is 45 years of age or over, Carrington shall pay the employee in accordance with the following scale:

Minimum Years of Service	Retrenchment Pay
Less than 1 year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	5 weeks' pay
2 years and less than 3 years	8.75 weeks' pay
3 years and less than 4 years	12.5 weeks' pay
4 years and less than 5 years	15 weeks' pay
5 years and less than 6 years	17.5 weeks' pay
6 years and over	20 weeks' pay

(c) "Weeks' pay" means the rate of pay for the employee concerned at the date of termination, and shall include in addition to the ordinary pay any over-agreement payments and the following, if applicable:

- (i) shift allowances as prescribed in Clause 22 – Shift and Weekend Work; and
- (ii) weekend penalties as prescribed in Clause 22 – Shift and Weekend Work.

36.4 Subject to an application by Carrington and further orders of FWC, Carrington may pay a lesser amount (or no amount) of retrenchment pay than that contained in subclause 36.3. FWC shall have regard to such financial and other resources of Carrington concerned as FWC thinks relevant, and the probable effect paying the amount of retrenchment pay in subclause 36.3 will have on Carrington.

37. WORKFORCE TRAINING AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

37.1 Workforce Training

- (a) For all training, each employee shall provide to Carrington details of their attendance at training and Carrington shall maintain a record of this attendance.
- (b) Upon termination, an employee may request written details of the training undertaken during their employment with Carrington.

Where this is not possible, and an employee is required to attend training outside their ordinary hours of work, they shall be paid for the actual time spent in attendance at the ordinary rate of pay.
- (g) Carrington requiring an employee to attend training away from their usual workplace shall pay to the employee a total of 7.6 hours ordinary pay for the day (or the rostered shift if this is greater than 7.6 hours).
- (h) Where an employee has not been provided with a vehicle by Carrington for the purpose of attending training, and the employee agrees to use their own vehicle, the employee shall be paid the per kilometre allowance set out in Item 4 of Table 2 of Schedule C – Pay Rates and Allowances to this Agreement.
- (i) Training provided outside the normal rostered hours of work shall be arranged so as to allow full-time employees to have at least eight or ten hours off-duty before or after training and the end or beginning of their shift, whichever is applicable as set out in subclause 16.2 - Arrangement of Hours. Where practicable, similar arrangements should also be made available to all other employees. This does not apply where an employee is undertaking ongoing studies, such as attending university, during non-work hours.
- (j) Any training undertaken by an employee that occurs at a workplace is not intended to replace or supplement staffing levels and the normal levels of service delivery at such a workplace.
- (k) Workforce development and training includes, but is not limited to, attendance and participation in conferences, seminars, training and staff meetings.

37.3 Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

- (a) CPD involves an employee's participation in activities such as in-house training programs and approved attendance at conferences and seminars that are relevant to their work and/or occupation at Carrington.
- (b) Full-time employees who are engaged in CPD will be able to access two (2) days' paid leave per year of service for the purposes of attending CPD activities.
- (c) Part-time employees who work at least four (4) shifts per fortnight shall be entitled to leave under this subclause on a pro-rata basis.
- (d) Additional CPD leave will be granted on a case-by-case basis by Carrington and will be, among other things, subject to the employee providing evidence of CPD requirements.
- (e) CPD leave entitlements pursuant to this clause will not accumulate from year to year.

37.4 Formal Study Support and Assistance

- (a) Formal Study Support involves an employee undertaking a formal qualification to support their employment or career development at Carrington.
- (b) Employees applying for Formal Study Support and Assistance (except for those undertaking minimum education requirements for their current level of work) will require two (2) years' continuous employment as a full-time or part-time employee with Carrington. Applications must be made in accordance with Carrington policies and procedures.

38. LABOUR FLEXIBILITY AND MIXED FUNCTIONS

- 38.1 Carrington may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training.
- 38.2 Carrington may direct an employee to carry out such duties and use such tools and equipment as may be required, provided the employee possesses the relevant skills and competence to perform such tasks. Where the employee does not possess such skills and competence, appropriate training shall be facilitated.
- 38.3 Any direction issued by Carrington pursuant to subclauses 38.1 and/or 38.2 shall be consistent with Carrington's responsibility to provide a safe and healthy working environment for employees, and Carrington's duty of care to residents and/or clients.

39. ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

39.1 Wherever possible, Carrington will hold meetings within the employee's ordinary hours. Any employee required by Carrington to attend meetings outside the employee's ordinary hours shall be entitled to receive their applicable rate of pay for the actual time spent in attendance at such meetings. In lieu of receiving payment, employees may, with the agreement of Carrington, be permitted to be free from duty for a period of time equivalent to the period spent in attendance at such meetings. Such time spent shall not be viewed as overtime for the purposes of this Agreement.

40. INSPECTION OF LOCKERS

40.1 Lockers may only be opened for inspection in the presence of the employee but in cases where the employee neglects or refuses to be present or in any circumstances where notice to the employee is impracticable, such inspection may be carried out in the absence of the employee by an officer of Carrington and an employee representative where practicable, otherwise by any two officers appointed by Carrington for that purpose.

41. REQUESTS FOR FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

41.1 Employees are entitled to request flexible employment arrangements in accordance with the provisions of the NES.
